

Talent Corporation Malaysia (TalentCorp)

TalentCorp was established on 1 January 2011 under the Prime Minister's Department to formulate and facilitate initiatives to address availability of talent in line with the needs of the country's economic transformation. Collaborating closely with relevant Government agencies and employers in priority economic sectors, TalentCorp develops demand-driven initiatives focused on three strategic thrusts, specifically

- 1 Optimise Malaysian talent;
- 2 Attract and Facilitate Global Talent; and
- 3 Build Networks of Top Talent.

www.talentcorp.com.my

The Australian Human Resources Institute (AHRI)

AHRI is the Australian association representing human resource and people management professionals. AHRI has international affiliations and close association with local and global industry and academia. AHRI's professional development programme reflects this network to bring comprehensive content from both academic and industry thinking. AHRI incorporates learning methodologies developed from 70 years of education training and experience to provide students with a multi-learning approach designed to engage all types of learning styles. As a registered training organisation, AHRI provides globally recognised qualifications as well as eLearning, essential short courses, webinars and customised in-house team training.

AHRI represents over 20,000 members from Australia and across the globe. It works to lead and foster the growth of HR and people management practitioners by actively setting standards and building the capability of the profession through quality professional development programmes and events. By working with members, AHRI is building the pivotal role that HR professionals and people managers have in the growth of business.

www.ahri.com.au

AHRI
PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION IN HUMAN RESOURCES

Professional HR Certification

As part of its initiative to strengthen the Human Resource (HR) capability in Malaysia, Talent Corporation Malaysia (TalentCorp) has partnered with the Australian HR Institute (AHRI) and K-Pintar to offer this programme which aims to enhance the competency of the HR function to better support business leaders in managing their people. The certification programme encourages HR practitioners in Malaysia to develop their competencies to be in line with international HR standards. It provides essential pre-requisite knowledge and skills for HR professionals to expand their generalist knowledge and to build their foundation in HR.

For EMPLOYERS

- Invest in developing competent HR professionals to partner with you in managing your people.
- Demonstrate your commitment to upskill your HR practitioners.
- Provide your HR practitioners with relevant skills and qualifications to perform their roles effectively.
- Develop your HR practitioners to have skills and experience which have been assessed against a professional recognition framework.

For HR PRACTITIONERS

- Gain a professional certification which is internationally recognised.
- Enhance your generalist knowledge in HR.
- Stay up-to-date with the latest developments in HR.
- Access essential resources and information relevant to your profession.
- Advance your career with the establishment of professional networks.
- Get access to online resource centre and email helpline that provides HR support through all stages of the employment lifecycle.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

About the Australian HR Institute (AHRI)

- The Australian Human Resources Institute (AHRI) is the national association representing human resource and people management professionals.
- Founded in 1943, it represents over 20,000 members from Australia and across the globe.
- Has international affiliations and close association with local and global industry and academia.
- Incorporates learning methodologies developed from 70 years of education training and experience.
- Signed an agreement with the Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (UK) (CIPD) to establish mutual recognition for individuals holding corresponding professional grades of membership in either body.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION IN HUMAN RESOURCES

Entry Requirement	No prerequisites for enrolment
Programme Duration	3 months
Programme Materials	Course handbooks & 6 topics booklets
Assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Written assignments for each of the six modules will be assessed by AHRI trainers. • Submitted progressively throughout the training period (No formal examinations).
Method Of Study	2 sessions of 3-Day Workshops (6 days face to face sessions with AHRI expert trainers).
Student Support Service	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You will be supported by an academic coordinator via email who will respond to questions related to assessments and workbook content. • You will have access to student forum to share questions and ideas with other students.
AHRI Membership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Globallink Membership during the study period which gives you access to 16 online services. • Upon successful completion of the programme, you will be upgraded to AHRI Professional Membership status (MAHRI). • Following completion of the program, graduates are encouraged to strengthen their local HR networks and connect with relevant local professional HR bodies.
Programme Fee <small>*Subject to change</small>	RM10,500
TalentCorp Incentive <small>(Upon successful completion of 6 modules and assignments)</small>	RM 5,250 (50% from the programme fee)
Fees paid by company / participant <small>(HRDF Claimable)</small>	RM5,250

COURSE REGISTRATION

For more information about this programme, please contact:

K-Pintar Sdn Bhd
 Contact Person: Santha
 Suite C-13-6, 13th Floor
 Wisma Goshen, Bangsar Trade Centre
 59200 Kuala Lumpur

T : +603 2284 4148
 E : enquiry@kpsb.net

www.kpintaracademy.com